Robert,

I hope this email finds you doing well. Duff Wehle has shared with Danny and I the article that you and he wrote some time back about the poultry show in Madison Square Gardens. I have just begun to read it and think this is something a lot of people would love to read. I was wondering if you would be ok with us using it on our website for the APA. We are always looking for people to submit articles for us to help educate folks and for historical reasons, I think this would be an interesting read for sure.

If you are ok with us sharing on the website, I will get our website team to scan and get it posted. I appreciate it very much and if you have any other articles you would like to share, please let me know and I'm happy to get them posted as well.

Have a wonderful rest of the week.

Norma:

Attached is a copy of the Wehle/Powell Madison Square Garden article in a format which should make it very easy to upload to the APA website.

Also attached, in the same format, is an article containing very rare material on Standard Partridge Plymouth Rocks, which would be a very nice addition to the APA website. (A copy of this article, which is larger than 25 MB, will be sent to you as a Google Drive link.)

Best,

Robert
